This year's grade 12 class capped off the year with a successful graduation on June 29.

"This year's group of graduate students consists of 297 graduates, including 22 French immersion students, 26 adults, 52 honour roll and 61 students are graduating with distinction. These are impressive numbers and hats off to all our graduates," said Lord Selkirk Regional Comprehensive Secondary School principal Darcy Nazimek.

He went on to reflect on the student's time at LSRCSS.

"I'm blown away by the growth I've seen these students. These students have seen lots of changes at the Comp in the last few years. In grade 10, some highlights — alternating days, masks on hats off, six feet, keep right, almost no extracurricular school cancellations and isolations at home. Microsoft Teams was fun and exciting," said Nazimek.

In grade 11 there was a lessening of restrictions with full days and an open cafeteria came back but extracurriculars were still limited.

Finally, grade 12 came and these students got their first experience of no restrictions and a full roster of extracurriculars but some still enjoyed cutting their own hair.

"Our graduating students have been through all kinds of obstacles over the last three years and have used these as opportunities to become incredible young adults. They're leaving us with great attitudes and appreciation of themselves and each other. Our grade 12's are fantastic students and strong role models," said Nazimek.

Lord Selkirk School Division Board of Trustees chair Lena Kubick thanked parents for all of the volunteering and support that they gave their children along the way to this day. She thanked all of the members of staff who make educating students possible and shared her wishes for the bright futures of the graduates.

You are a diverse group of scholars, artists, musicians, athletes, of critical thinkers, entrepreneurs, and caregivers of hands-on learners and problem solvers. We need you all. I wish for you strength to face challenges with confidenice, along with the wisdom to choose your path carefully. I wish for you adventure on your journey and may you only stop to help someone along the way. I wish you courage as you strive to be the change you wish to see in the world," she said.

Lisa Minkner, assistant superintendent for the LSRD, then spoke to the grads.

"As you enter into your next chapter you will all meet new people, encounter new ideas and face new experiences. I want to remind you that this world is filled with opportunities if you're willing to accept and receive them. Embrace these experiences with an open mind and a willingness to learn. You have all the skills you need to move forward and it is up to you to create opportunities for yourself and to shape your future," she said.

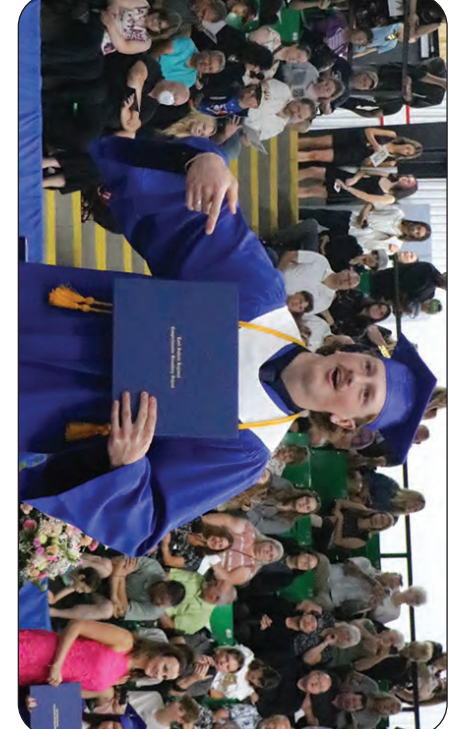

Valdeorian Jackson Doak took to the stage with a message of encouragement for the graduating class.

"We overcame so much adversity by one and got here today. Regardless of what we do when we leave the high school, I know that we will all keep that pride pocket everywhere we go," he said.

Students received their major awards with Emily Bracken taking home the Governor General's award for highest average and the Lord Selkirk School Board Award of Excellence going to Emlyn Bayle for academic achievement as well as extracurricular and community involvement.

On the last day of school for these grade 12 students their principal bade them farewell by letting them know that everyone at the school is proud of this graduating class.

"As you leave our school community, there's lots to celebrate all your successes and achievements over the last 13 years. You should be excited for the next phases of your life to begin. Always remember the good things that happened and the life lessons learned along the way. As you move forward, you have the support of the community behind you and you should know that we're very proud of you. Whether it's your healthy and productive lives, so, to the amazing families and grads of 2023. Congratulations!" said Nazimek.

LSRCSS's 2023 valedictorian talks of growth and the benefits of failure

Jackson Doak speaks about what high school was like for 2023 grads

By Katelyn Boulanger

Starting their first year at Lord Selkirk Regional Comprehensive Secondary School as part-time online learning students made the class of 2023's high school experience very unique. Jackson Doak, valedictorian of this year's graduating class reflects on what school was like for him and his peers.

"[Going to LSRCSS] was definitely a huge change from what I was used. Growing up in Lockport, in St. Andrews, I went to Lockport School, which is a smaller school and [doesn't have] a lot of kids. Then coming here, it was way different because there's [way more] kids walking the halls," said Doak.

Doak will be in for a change again next year as he pursues an engineering degree at the University of Manitoba. Now that he's reached the end of his high school learning, he's taken time to reflect on his time at LSRCSS.

He says his favourite part of high school was the additional options it gave him in school. Being able to walk from class to class and learn from different teachers was part of the experience that he enjoyed.

At the same time, in his valedictorian speech, he reflected on his grade's first year at the Comp as being very affected by COVID.

"There was only ever half the total student body at the school on a given day, and even then, we could only see half of their faces. On the days when you weren't physically at school, we were on a teams call in bed. Not really a true high school experience if you ask me," he said.

Doak said that the real fun began in the class's grade 11 and 12 years which were more typical.

"We were finally able to see all of our friends again, enjoy our classes without having to be 6 feet apart, and could take part in school events like sports games, drama productions and rallies. We could finally do things together as a school. The royals pride we all felt when cheering on our friends as they strode towards their accomplishments was incredible. It was a sense of togetherness, not only as a school but as people. Something we so desperately needed after such isolation," said Doak.

Overall he believes that the experience helped the class learn to bounce back from adversity.

"Our last year of middle school cut off about halfway through so we got thrown into the deep end for high school and then we had to persevere through that. But I think it all turned out well. I think we're very resilient," he said.

Doak said that something that stands out about LSRCSS for him is the teachers.

"I find that the teachers really want to get to know you. They're very personable with [me and my] fellow students. I have pretty good relationships with all the teachers I've had," he said.

In his valedictorian speech, he told his fellow students not to be afraid of failure.

"We should never be scared of failing because it's a win-win situation. You either succeed in what you're doing, or you gain valuable experience. Whether it's talking to someone whom you're too scared to talk to, returning to school as a mature student, or speaking your mind when you're fearful you're wrong, always throw yourself out there. Never let yourself become paralyzed by the thought of failing because you'll succeed a lot more often than you think," he said.

His advice to next year's upcoming high school students is to try new things.

"Take the classes you want to take and take as many as you can, because it's free right now. You'll have to pay for it later. Don't take too many spares and just have fun," said Doak.

"Our greatest glory is not in never failing, but in rising every time we fall.' I know for a fact, that if we adopt this mindset, regardless of what road life takes us down, no matter how windy and no matter how many potholes, we will succeed. We are all in this together, because at the end of the day, we are the class of 2023, and we can do anything," said Doak.

Congrats

Lockport Bridge open for two-way traffic as of June 30

Submitted by the Lockport Community Development Group

In the face of unprecedented adversity, the remarkable business community of Lockport has emerged stronger, showcasing unwavering resilience and determination. Despite the hardships inflicted by the global pandemic and the prolonged closure of the vital St. Andrews Lock and Dam Bridge, our community stands tall, united in overcoming these dual challenges. We celebrate a significant milestone as the bridge reopens, symbolizing hope, progress, and a brighter future for Lockport.

The reopening of the bridge signifies a collective sigh of relief for Lockport. Local businesses will thrive with increased vehicular and foot traffic, as the bridge now offers a widened pedestrian pathway. This surge in economic activity promises to invigorate our community and restore vitality to our local economy. Residents can anticipate easier commutes, improved connectivity, and a return to their daily routines. The reopening of the St. Andrews Lock and Dam Bridge is a testament to our community's resilience and determination in overcoming even the most daunting challenges.

To celebrate this milestone, we invite you to join us at the Lockport First Farmers Market, held every Sunday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Heritage Park, located on the North-East Corner of the bridge, adjacent to A&W. Come and rediscover Lockport, its rich history, and its exceptional amenities. Enjoy local eats, groceries, fishing, and the breathtaking sights of Lockport's famous pelicans.

As we commemorate this achievement, we must acknowledge the sacrifices made and the losses endured along the way. Our hearts go out to those affected by the pandemic or impacted by the prolonged bridge closure. However, as a resilient community, we stand together, ready to rebuild, recover, and embrace a future filled with possibilities.

Lockport's journey is far from over. With the reopening of the St. Andrews Lock and Dam, we shift our focus towards healing, rebuilding, and charting a path towards a stronger, more prosperous future. This moment serves as a reminder of the indomitable spirit that defines our community — a spirit that will guide us through the exciting changes that lie ahead.

Three local schools get garden plots to teach students about growing

By Katelyn Boulanger

Three more local schools will be able to give their students the opportunity to learn more about growing their own food this year after a partnership between Communities in Bloom, Selkirk Home Hardware and The Flower Child helps fund new garden plots.

"We decided to launch a pilot to see how it would be received by the schools. What sparked the interest was that we had two grades from Robert Smith School that had plots at the water tower community gardens, and they really loved it," said Taylor Gyselinck, president of the Selkirk chapter of Communities in Bloom and owner of The Flower Child.

She says that the Robert Smith School students learned about different plants. At one point they had a pollinator plot and they have an annual vegetable plot which is planted with the vegetables that would be in a pizza. The students then have a pizza party to connect with what they were learning.

"I knew how much they loved it and I thought, 'Well, how could we bring this to other kids who aren't within walking distance of the community gardens?' Because so many schools aren't [close enough to walk over]. A lot of schools, in their curriculum, do some growing but a lot of kids really still have no idea what you can grow here," said Gyselinck.

From there she reached out to the school division last year to get the ball rolling on some garden plots in Lord Selkirk School District Schools. In that first year of the program, Ruth Hooker School and Mapleton Schools received the materials to make their plots. This year they've donated plot materials to Daerwood School, École Selkirk Junior High, and Lord Selkirk Regional Comprehensive Secondary School.

"They're the same plots as at the community garden. They're four feet by eight feet. They're raised garden plots and they get all of the materials – a stain for the plots, they get the lumber, they get the screws, they get everything they need to build them," said Gyselinck.

The schools do fill their own plots with soil.

In addition to the garden plots, the schools from this year and previous years including Robert Smith School were able to send in a wish list of their desired plants and seeds to get them on their way.

Gyselinck feels that this project has been a success and hopes to continue to expand in future years.

"[Speaking as the owner of the Flower Child], for me, this is my biggest donation I would say that I do every year. I really think it's important, especially now with produce in the grocery stores and how high everything is, for kids to learn about where food comes from. To learn they can grow their own food and to see the excitement on their faces when they see a tomato or a strawberry that they grew," said Gyselinck.

She feels that it's important from a young age for kids to learn that anyone can be a gardener and encourages people to give growing a try.

"It's not too late to start putting something in the ground. You can still try doing a couple of tomatoes in pots [that you purchase from a garden centre]. You can still seed a round of lettuce. You still have time to even seed carrots. It's never too late to try and I think for people who haven't tried starting small is always good. Anyone can be a gardener. There're all different ways you can garden whether you're in an apartment, and you have a balcony or you have a couple of pots with some fresh herbs, or you have a raised bed in your yard that you fill with just some cucumbers and some onions or you have an extensive, big in-ground garden," said Gyselinck.

West Nile virus mosquitos detected in West St. Paul this season

Precautions can be taken to reduce your risk of contracting virus

By Staff

On June 30 the province of Manitoba issued a West Nile virus bulletin. Manitoba Health reports that Culex tarsalis mosquitoes carrying the West Nile virus (WNV) were collected from the Rural Municipality of West St. Paul during the week of June 18 to 24. This is the first mosquito pool that has tested positive in Manitoba this season.

The first positive pool was detected earlier than normal this year, likely due to warmer temperatures in southern Manitoba this spring and summer. There have only been three other times in the last 20 years where a positive mosquito pool was detected during this week.

A bulletin issued by the RM of West St. Paul on June 30 said that West St. Paul does not meet the Province's criteria for fogging at this time, and if and when the Province determines fogging is required in the RM, residents will be notified in advance. This is because the province monitors mosquito counts and determines if and when adult mosquito fogging is required in municipalities bordering the City of Winnipeg.

Larviciding, however, is already underway as The RM of West St. Paul, in partnership with the City of Winnipeg, began a West Nile Virus targeted Larviciding Program in the municipality on June 19.

Larviciding is the most effective and environmentally acceptable method of mosquito population reduction. Mosquito larvae are concentrated in water sites which makes them the most vulnerable stage of the mosquito lifecycle. By targeting larvae in standing water, countless numbers of mosquitoes are killed before they reach the flying adult, biting stage.

Biological larvicide VectoBac® is being applied where mosquito larvae are identified. This larvicide can be used in populated areas and is safe for humans and domestic animals.

All pesticide used and procedures applied are in accordance with federally approved label recommendations from the Pest Management Regulatory Agency, Health Canada and the recommendations set by Manitoba Conservation and Climate

The risk of WNV infection depends on various factors including time of year, number and location of infected Culex tarsalis mosquitoes, and the number of days with sufficient heat. The risk of exposure to WNV is currently low, but likely to increase in the coming weeks, as the highest risk period is historically in July and August. Manitobans are reminded that it takes just a single bite from an infected mosquito to contract WNV.

While most people who are infected will develop mild or no symptoms, some can develop severe symptoms that can result in hospital stays and even death. Recovery from WNV infection, particularly severe symptoms, can take months or years.

While Manitobans are encouraged to enjoy outdoor activities, it is critical to reduce the risk of mosquito bites and potential exposure to WNV by:

- reducing the amount of time spent outdoors during peak mosquito hours between dusk and dawn;
- using an appropriate mosquito repellent;
- wearing light-coloured, loose-fitting clothing with long sleeves and pant legs;
- maintaining door and window screens; and
- cleaning and emptying yard items that collect water.

In 2022, there were seven cases of WNV in Manitoba, and five of those were hospitalized. No confirmed human cases of WNV have been identified in Manitoba yet this year.

WNV updates will continue to be shared with the public throughout the summer.

East Beaches bounces and bursts into summer of 2023

By Laura Tutlies

July 1 brought people in droves to the East Beaches.

The highways were bumper to bumper traffic. In Grand Marais, cars, trucks, motorcycles, and delivery vans were caught up in lines that stretched over two kilometers beyond the West gate of Grand Beach Park. Thousands were delayed in the hot sun along Highway 12 before heading on to the boardwalk and the gorgeous white sands of the Beach. A few dipped into Sandbar (the local pub) at the edge of the congestion to enjoy a pint and a foam-covered patio before heading on to join friends and family for Canada Day festivities.

At the Recreation Centre, a block from the congestion, families could find a pancake breakfast, two Canada Day Cakes, games, a silent auction and 50/50 draws in the cool of the community hall. Outside on the baseball field was a giant bouncy structure and the opportunity to play the competitive game of bubble soccer. Good fun on a fabulous summer day at the start of beach season.

As dark settled on the day – 10:30 p.m. to be precise – the sky ignited with fireworks. Manmade stars burst into the night sky. But not without considerable politics. A recent fire ban imposed by the RM of St. Clements was lifted just a day ahead of the planned explosions over the East Beaches and Grand Marais. Residents argued for and against the spectacular display, including an appropriate location for the event which in the end took place above the grounds of the Recreation Centre. Along the Lake, a few cottage residents and renters took advantage of the defunct fire ban to light up the Lake and neighbourhoods that line the eastern shores of Lake Winnipeg.

Across Canada, fireworks displays are being reconsidered. In Winnipeg, at the Forks, the formerly magnificent Canada Day fireworks display has been replaced by a plethora of drones which were arranged to honour Indigenous teachings as they hovered above the land and the people with the intent of creating a safe and spectacular display combining art and technology.

Likewise in other major cities – no more fireworks. Some pet owners, environmentalists and firefighters are truly delighted to forfeit the noise and threat of flames to landscapes and buildings.

Meanwhile, summer has been launched in East Beaches.

The Friday Market in Grand Marais and the Saturday Market in Victoria Beach were both on in full force with fabulous vegetable, fish, craft tables and food vendors with excellent goods for sale.

The ice cream on the boardwalk elsewhere was a welcome cool treat on a hot summer day. Indeed, summer has burst upon the East Beaches with more to come.

Stay tuned for the reopening of the Heritage Wing, Crusin' the Beaches Show & Shine, Summer Winds Festival, and for Beaches of 59 who are everywhere that there are Beach lovers, tourism and fun.

All this to follow in July and August.

Let's head to the waterfront for the Selkirk Port Market

Submitted by the City of Selkirk

It's back to the Selkirk waterfront for the Selkirk Port Market this summer. Come rain or shine there will be a market on every Wednesday from July 19 to Aug. 30.

Ellie Longbottom, Selkirk Culture Coordinator, says vendors will be selling vegetables, honey, homemade jams, soaps and clothing – just to name a few will return to the waterfront.

And according to Longbottom, it's exciting for several reasons.

"The waterfront is a beautiful venue and it has an excellent vibe for the market," Longbottom said.

"We've also got some new additions to the market so depending on your preference you'll want to bring your yoga mat or your walking shoes."

Free yoga at the market in partnership with Glow Fitness will begin on the second Wednesday of the market run. From July 26 to Aug. 30, between noon and 12:45 p.m. make the most of your lunch break and embrace the power of movement.

Glow Fitness's experienced instructors will guide you through invigorating yoga flows that will leave you feeling refreshed and energized. Don't miss this incredible opportunity to connect with nature, unwind, and get active – all for free.

Also new this year, Red River North Tourism will be offering walking tours that will alternate from week to week, taking participants on a journey through the city's rich history, culture and murals. Dates and times for the guided tours will be announced soon.

Angie Neeth returns as market coordinator for the sixth year, and she's as enthusiastic as if it was the first year.

"I'm thrilled for another Selkirk Port Market this summer. After all these years it's still exciting and humbling to see the community come out, enjoy the atmosphere and support the vendors," Neeth said.

"Markets are so important in our communities because of the vendors themselves, who can source local ingredients and goods from each other. This aids in the production of products and in attempts to keep costs down for the consumers. It's exciting to have the Market back to its original location at the waterfront, where there is more space available, allowing us to have up to 55 vendors for this summer."

Each Wednesday the Market will have different vendors a list of which will be provided on the Selkirk Port Market Facebook page and on Instagram @selkirk_port_market each week.

There will be everyone's favourites - fresh vegetables, hand-crafted jewelry, homemade baking, jams, jellies, tea, clothing, body care, dog treats, buskers, food trucks, you name it, the Market will have it.

Cochrane Creek Farm, will not only have a wide variety of pork cuts and sausages but will also be there with their new hotdog cart each Wednesday.

There will also be a spot to drop off non-perishable food items for the Selkirk Food Bank. Non-perishable food items and monetary donations of any denomination are graciously accepted to help those needing food throughout the community.

Selkirk Fair Trade will have a booth set up at the market and will provide information about Selkirk's status as a Fair Trade Town as well as resources on the benefits of buying Fair Trade. The city earned the designation of Fair Trade Town in 2017. That same year, the City of Selkirk was named Fair Trade Workplace of the Year.

Returning this year is the United for Literacy reading tent, times two. The popular summertime reading program will feature two tents during the market with the aim of reducing the loss of knowledge and skills between the end of one school year and the beginning of the next.

Focusing on literacy in a broad sense, the staff engage children in fun and inclusive activities based on diverse learning styles and reading levels. Reading Tent sessions engage learners in crafts, reading circles, and movement-based activities, and end with participants selecting a free book to take home.

There will be buskers each week,

"We're excited to have the Selkirk Port Market back on the waterfront and we're really thrilled to showcase the rich culture of the city, the talented artists and give everyone the opportunity to share in the goods offered by the vendors," Longbottom said.

The Selkirk Port Market is sponsored by Access Credit Union and the media sponsor for the market is the Selkirk Record.

All those involved with Selkirk Port Market are excited to see everyone again and looking forward to a wonderful seven market weeks ahead.

Manitoba RCMP safety message

Submitted by Manitoba RCMP

With the summer season now officially in full swing, the Manitoba RCMP would like to remind everyone to be safe on roadways while enjoying the beautiful lakes and rivers throughout the province.

So far this year, 64 people have died in motor vehicle collisions in Manitoba. This includes 16 people who died in a collision that occurred on June 15. This is well above the number of people who died on Manitoba roads last year at this time (33) and above the five-year average (34).

With increased traffic expected on our highways as Manitobans head to beaches, cottages, campsites, and other holiday destinations, we can't stress enough the importance of the following:

- drive sober
- wear a seatbelt
- slow down and drive to condi-

- tions
- be cautious and always aware of your surroundings
- pay attention to the road at all times
- keep a safe distance between your vehicle and the vehicle ahead of you
- put your cellphone away

Safety in the water

Eight Manitobans have already lost their lives due to drowning this year. Whether you are swimming, boating or on a sandy beach; being water smart is essential to having a safe time when on, or near, lakes and rivers.

In partnership with the Life Saving Society, here are important safety tips:

- Wear your lifejacket or Personal Floatation Device (PFD)
- Learn to swim
- Always swim with a buddy
- Children and non-swimmers should always be supervised around water
- Be aware of cold-water risks
- Alcohol/drugs and water don't mix - never swim or operate a boat or any other watercraft while impaired

Environmental Licence for construction of solar glass plant in Selkirk approved

Submitted by the City of Selkirk

The behind the scenes work at Canadian Premium Sands (CPS) that will result in hundreds of jobs and hundreds of millions invested in the City of Selkirk is moving along nicely.

CPS has made significant progress, including securing its Environmental Licence to construct and operate its proposed patterned solar glass plant.

Tim Feduniw, the city's Director of Sustainable Economic Development, says there's been plenty of progress made on CPS's plan to build North America's only patterned solar glass manufacturing plant in Selkirk.

"We're moving closer and it's really exciting," Feduniw said.

"We continue to work closely with CPS and it's encouraging to see the progress they're making towards 300-plus new jobs in the community combined with close to a billion-dollar capital investment."

The new plant will be located on 121-acres off Hwy. 9 in the city's original industrial park.

CAO Duane Nicol said the decision for CPS to locate here is akin to the arrival of the city's largest employer more than 100 years ago.

"This puts Selkirk on the map for the new green economy, and there's going to be spinoff industry that's going to come here, benefitting the city, bringing more jobs and more economic growth to the community," Nicol said.

"This will have a positive impact on Selkirk for generations to come. The location of the CPS solar glass manufacturing plant will be as impactful on our city as the mill was all those years ago."

In May, CPS announced the appointment of Dana Partridge as Vice President of Glass Operations. Partridge brings significant glass manufacturing experience gained over a more than 20 year career across a variety of roles with Guardian Industries in glass plant operations.

During his time with Guardian Industries, Partridge had management oversight of multiple glass production facilities in the firm's U.S., Latin America and Asia-Pacific regions and he managed the construction, commissioning and staffing of a 500 tonne per day greenfield glass manufacturing facility in Saudi Arabia.

Following his career at Guardian Industries, Partridge contributed to the success of a number of manufacturing companies and is joining CPS from Tacoma Glass Manufacturing, in Burlington, Washington.

Partridge will work initially as a management consultant pending his relocation here.

Theresa Jester has joined CPS's board of directors. Jester has more than 40 years of experience as a corporate executive and board member in solar energy technology, engineering and hardware manufacturing organizations.

CPS has secured off-take agreements with three North American solar panel manufacturers for a combined total of 62 per cent of planned output capacity and an average renewable contract term of over 4 years. An offtake agreement is a legally binding agreement between two parties wherein a customer commits to buying all or a portion of a manufacturer's future production. These agreements include options to increase firm off-take volumes by an additional 15% of planned output capacity to a combined total of 77%, subject to mutual agreement.

The finalized engineering and design of the Selkirk plant has been increased to 800 tonnes of output per day, up from the originally planned 500 tonnes per day, due to higher-than-expected demand.

"We are excited to have reached this important stage in the development of our integrated solar glass manufacturing project. With strong revenue visibility through binding commercial off-take agreements and a high degree of certainty with capital costs and operational performance through our EPC agreement we are confident in our ability to commercialize this high return project, supporting the global energy transition," said Glenn Leroux, CPS President and CEO.

"With our recent additions of industry expertise to the team, we look forward to a successful financing process that capitalizes our project and enables the delivery of our exciting business plan."

Smith named MHSAA 'AAAA' varsity male athlete of the year

By Brian Bowman

Garden City Collegiate's Colson Smith capped off an impressive high school athletic career with a very deserving honour last week.

The talented St. Andrews' product was named the Manitoba High Schools Athletic Association's "AAAA" athlete of the year.

"I was pretty pumped when I heard that at my convocation. I wasn't fully expecting it," said Smith. "I knew I was nominated for it. I was pretty surprised and pumped (when I won)."

His list of accomplishments this past season were simply amazing.

Smith was the captain of his hockey team, named an MHSAA Athlete of the Week, was the Husky Classic Tournament MVP, and was ranked No. 1 in the Winnipeg Free Press Coaches Poll for boys' high school hockey.

He was named the WHSHL MVP, selected to the league's all-star game, and won the scoring title in the league's top division. Smith was also selected as the recipient of the 2023 Dairy Farmers of Manitoba Players Choice Award at the AAAA Provincial Hockey Championships where he was also named an all-star.

He was the captain of Garden City's baseball team that has won back-to-back provincial titles. Smith was picked as an all star at this year's provincials.

He also had the low score at the KPAC Golf Championships.

Wow, what a way to cap off an outstanding high school career.

"Everything that could have happened, did happen," Smith said. "Besides provincials for hockey (Garden City lost to Steinbach in the final), winning cities was a huge accomplishment for myself, the team, and the school. That was the first championship for Garden City. You couldn't have asked for anything else, really.

Going into the year that's what I wanted the most, winning that hockey championship and that's what we got."

Smith also excelled in the classroom. He maintained an academic average of 87 per cent and was a graduating honour roll student.

Outside of school, Smith assists a 11U community baseball team and is a volunteer for the Learn to Skate program.

He also volunteers and furthers his learning through workshops on mental health, indigenous perspectives, and youth in sport.

He delivered hampers for the Christmas Cheer Board and assisted with MTS PD Day. He was a rookie hockey coach for the school and was involved in the Safe Talk workshop for suicide alertness, peer group support for mental health and wellness, and was a Moose Hide Campaign participant and MMIWG2S ally.

"We did a lot of volunteering for hockey this year," Smith said. "Just giving back, not only to communities, but other people, I think is a big part in succeeding. It's a lot of team bonding and it builds a lot of character and I think that helped me with a lot of my achievements this year and helped me become a better person."

Smith will be attending South Suburban College in Chicago this fall where he will be playing baseball. Smith will be teammates with Manitobans Dylan Duguay and Hayden Faragher.

"Ever since I signed to go down there it's been in the back of my mind every day," Smith said. "Moving away from home and living on my own and playing at the collegiate level is something that I'm going to cherish. I'm going to work hard and see if I can get to the next level after that."

Statement from Manitoba's finance minister Cliff Cullen on Tax Freedom Day

Submitted by Manitoba government

For the second consecutive year, the Fraser Institute has named Manitoba the number one province for Tax Freedom Day, the day of the year when the average individual has earned enough money to pay their taxes. For 2023, Manitoba reached that day on June 6, ahead of all other provinces.

Whether it is filling up the gas tank, buying groceries or cooling a home, the purchases Manitobans make daily are becoming more expensive. As Manitobans continue to face a rising cost of living, providing historic help to make life more affordable for Manitobans remains of critical importance to the Manitoba government.

Introduced in Budget 2023, new and enhanced tax measures will bring Manitoba's personal income taxes in line with other provinces. The changes in personal income tax will allow families to keep more of their income and will attract interprovincial migration to grow the economy.

Incremental savings from all tax breaks, school tax rebates and affordability payments from 2022 to 2024 will total more than $1.8 billion. That is more than $5,500 for an average two-income family.

A reduction to Manitoba Hydro fees will have a favourable effect on electricity rates and save ratepayers $190 this year and more than $4 billion over the next 20 years. Manitoba Hydro's rate application to the Public Utilities Board is now only an increase of two per cent over each of the next two years compared to the proposed 3.5 per cent rate increase.

In addition, starting on July 1, Manitobans will see an increase in take-home pay on paycheques due to the largest ever enhancement to the basic personal amount to $15,000. The savings to Manitoba taxpayers in 2023 will total $311 million, with tax savings up to $524 for individuals or up to $1,048 for a two-income family compared to 2022.

In the last year, Manitoba's economy emerged faster and stronger than anyone could have anticipated. Over the last year, we have seen significant economic growth in our province and an influx of skilled immigration. We see tremendous opportunities ahead with continued improvement in our fiscal position as we work to create the right conditions for sustained economic growth.

Our government remains focused on maintaining a strong, sustainable fiscal foundation that will provide better services to all Manitobans. This includes investing in front-line services and lowering taxes to make life more affordable for Manitobans and more competitive for Manitoba businesses.

Ask the Money Lady

Dear Money Lady Readers,

I read a study that asked kindergartners if they considered themselves artists, and 100% said YES. When they asked kids in grade 5 if they thought of themselves as an artist, only 10% said YES. That's very interesting – somewhere in those first five years of school, children are getting cues from their peers, parents, teachers, or even society and social media that they aren't that creative anymore. Now add in 25 years or even 50 years and it's easy to see how we are shaped by our friends, family, and society to be nervous, apprehensive, and reluctant to try new things, with sometimes only ourselves as a cheerleader to improve our lives.

To change your circumstances and to improve your life we all know we must set goals. When you set goals, remember they are to challenge you out of that comfort you so want to wallow in. Goals are to be on-going throughout your life. You can't just set a goal, reach it, and then stay there. That's not how it works. Once you reach one goal, you must make another, and another, and another. The goal is not the end. Instead, they are designed to force you to reach for more, to be happier, and hopefully live a life full of great adventures, meeting wonderful people, and having glorious experiences. Here are 5 tips on how to get started on those personal goals to improve your life.

1. Set a goal that motivates you – choose something you can accomplish over a set time frame.
2. Write down your goals dividing them into short-term, (within 12 months) and long-term, (1-5 years).
3. Post your goals where you can see them every day – on your bathroom mirror or the refrigerator.
4. Adjust your goals as you get closer to meeting them.
5. Reward yourself once you accomplish a goal, (dinner out, a spa day, personal item you've always wanted).

Setting and achieving goals, no matter what they are helps us grow, forcing us to step outside our comfort zone, and ultimately increases our self-esteem. It is believed that self-esteem peaks in middle age and then drops after age 60 when people enter retirement. In your 40s to 50s we tend to have the highest self-esteem, since mid-life is a time of stable work, family, and romantic relationships. Contrast this to those in retirement who may be experiencing declining health, empty nest syndrome, and obsolete work skills. So, how do we gain greater confidence as we age? Here are 5 tips to boost your self-esteem.

1. Dress well and look good. Having a polished appearance makes you feel better about yourself.
2. Learn something new. Take a class, find a hobby, volunteer.
3. Challenge yourself physically. This could be anything that gets you moving, preferably with other people.
4. Make a list of your life achievements, personal strengths, and talents. Read this list every day.
5. Be kind to yourself. Leave past thoughts in the past and focus on new adventures. Focus on what you can do now and surround yourself with supportive, kind, and loving people.

Strong self-esteem and constant goal setting are the keys to becoming successful in everything you do in life. The only thing missing is your determination to really do it. Once you have all three you will become unstoppable since that unwavering determination to meet your goals, is the iron fist that will crush procrastination and fear.

Good Luck & Best Wishes,

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Level: Intermediate

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

OBITUARY

Anne Shirley Brindley
July 5, 1930 – June 28, 2023

Anne Shirley Brindley (nee Holt), Mother, Gramma, Great-Grandmother, sister, friend, passed away on the morning of June 28, 2023, at the age of 92 years young. She lived life to the fullest by spending time surrounded by family and friends. She loved laughing, watching curling, playing cards, and always jumped at the opportunity to go out for breakfast or wing nights.

Anne was born on July 5, 1930, to Clarice and George Holt in the R.M. of Roblin, Manitoba. She lived in Stonewall, Manitoba where she lovingly raised her family before moving to Argyle. She adored being part of the community and spent many years as a member of the curling club and played in numerous shuffleboard tournaments around the province. Her last years were spent living at the Knight's Center in Selkirk, where she was thrilled to become part of a new community. She cherished the friendships she made there and never missed an opportunity to attend an outing, meal, or celebration.

Anne was predeceased by her husband Ken; son Brian; siblings Helen, Tom, Jim, and Allan. She leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter Donna (Ken) and daughter-in-law Bev. She was a beloved grandma to Jackie (Doug), Valery (Cory), Mary (Darren), Karen (Jeff), Kendall (Richard), and Brindley (Sean). She also adored her many great-grandchildren Gavin (Manvir), Justine (Ryley), Breanna (Jesse), Chaz (Kaitlyn), Emily (Duncan), Sam (Alexis), Alex (Kennedy), Jayden, Greame, and baby Taeya Anne who captivated Gram's attention since the moment they met. She will also be missed by her brother Ted, sisters-in-law Peggy, Diane, and Joy as well as many nieces and nephews.

She was most fondly known as Gram by those closest to her. She would always welcome you with the warmest smile, biggest hug, and favorite treat at the time. She had a knack for making everyone feel as if they were the most special. She was compassionate, kind, and abundantly affectionate to those she loved most. She was independent, strong, and possessed a feisty stubbornness that will live on in her six granddaughters.

You will live on in our hearts and actions for eternity, Gram.

Love you biggest.

The family would like to express gratitude to those who cared for Anne at both Selkirk Hospital and HSC. Thank you also to Ken Loehmer for your help during this difficult time.

In lieu of a funeral, a small family celebration will take place, as per Mom's request.

For those who wish, a donation can be made in her memory to a charity of your choosing.

OBITUARY

In loving memory of
Zur Trustin Robinson, 23 years old
August 31st, 1999 - June 17th, 2023

Zur, most beloved brother, son, grandson, father, nephew, uncle, and friend passed away on June 17th, 2023. His departure leaves us all heartbroken. He brought joy and pride to his family as an extremely loving and devoted son and dedicated father.

Zur began attending school in Selkirk from grades 3-6 at Centennial School, grades 7-9 at Selkirk Jr. High, and Lord Selkirk Regional. Zur was very athletic and was involved in every sport in school. Outside of school he was in soccer, dance, and lacrosse. Zur was raised with horses and was a natural at riding, he had a dream of owning his own ranch. For a few short years, Zur enjoyed a profession as a natural health practitioner. He had a passion for helping others get well, and giving guidance to those who couldn't help themselves.

His brothers and mom cherished him as a pillar of support and spiritual guidance. He possessed a gentle caring fatherly instinct since the birth of his only little brother. Zur embraced his gift of fatherhood with overwhelming love and dedication to his only son and namesake Trustin, who's birth impacted Zur's life more than words can describe.

Zur was survived by his mother Jackie Billington (Tommy), father Robb Robinson (Suzanne), brothers Thane, Elijah, Uri (Mae), Creed (Nyssa), and his stepsister Kessa. His grandmother Gaylene Sparks (Jeff), grandfather Jake Siemens, his partner "in crime" Laurel Regula, and his son Trustin Regula-Robinson. Zur's countless friends will remember him for his undying love and loyalty, always willing to help in any way he could.

In his short time with us, Zur made a lasting impact on our lives. We mourn the loss of such a vibrant soul. Zur's faith and spirituality was present in every aspect of his life, especially where he struggled.

We wanted to share Zur's last faith journal entry to share his heart with everyone

Why does Gods love for you give you every reason to put your faith in him?

"He has been there for me opening my eyes when I was blind sending love into me when I needed love feeling trapped and alone. He's given me freedom being in bondage he's forgiven me" -Zur Robinson

May Zur rest in eternal peace. He will be missed and forever remembered.

Rest in Peace, Zur Trustin Robinson

OBITUARY

Audrey Lenore Greenham (nee King)
August 12, 1927 - June 3, 2023

Peacefully on Saturday, June 3, 2023 Audrey Greenham of Clarkleigh, Manitoba let go of the hand of her family and reached out for God's hand and her eternal heavenly home.

Audrey, Knox, Danica, Morley, Violet, Evelyn and Juliet; her great-great-grandson Gunner; many nieces, nephews and great friends.

She was predeceased by her loving husband, Morley; her parents, Fred and Emma King; sisters, Mary, Evelyn, Ruth, Emma, Helen, Dorothy; brothers, Fred, George, Harry and twin brother, Lawrence.

Audrey was born in Winnipeg. She moved to the farm in Clarkleigh with her family when she was four years old. She loved to make hay with the horses and we heard lots of stories about runaway horses in the hayfield. She really enjoyed school, playing baseball and soccer. She loved to run, with the colts, after the cows, and at the school and picnic races. She played the piano by ear and played for a school choir. She worked at East Meadows Ranch when she was a teenager.

Audrey married Morley, June 15, 1946 and they had 58 wonderful years together. She had a busy life working on their dairy farm and raising six children. She always made our work on the farm fun. We raced with the clock getting work done, played games and enjoyed picnics. She loved to mow hay and made the best hayfield lunches. She was very involved with her grandchildren, hosting many family gatherings, which usually involved a game of soccer.

Mom sewed many of our clothes when we were young. She crocheted, knit and sewed many quilts and always had a project on the go. Mom enjoyed watching the Blue Jays and the Jets. She maintained a close relationship with her siblings which gave us the gift of a large close knit extended family.

After Audrey and Morley retired from dairy farming in 1977 she became more involved with the Clarkleigh Friendship Club, working as secretary treasurer. She was very involved in the Clarkleigh United Church serving as secretary and then chair for many years. She also took tea and coffee for refreshments after church. Mom wrote notes about her childhood and time working on the farm. In her notes she wrote "...The strength that I have from God has helped me all through my life."

Audrey travelled extensively after retiring from dairy farming, visiting family across Canada, USA, New Zealand and Europe. She loved her trip to Churchill to visit the polar bears when she was 86 years old.

In 2018 Mom moved from the farm to the Lundar Seniors Home. She enjoyed many friends there. The family would like to thank all the health care workers for their kind care of our Mom over the years. You are greatly appreciated!

We are so blessed to have had such a kind, easygoing, wise and hardworking Mom. We will miss her amazing attitude, ready laugh, and great smile! We all remember Mom/Grandma standing at the window waving good-bye to us.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Audrey's memory to Lundar Seniors' Housing, Box 655, Lundar MB R0C 1Y0, Lundar Seniors Resource Council, Box 430, Lundar, MB, R0C 1Y0 or to a charity of your choice.

A private family service will be held on Sunday, July 16, 2023 at Clarkleigh United Church, followed by a public Celebration of Life at 2:00 p.m. in the Lundar Legion Hall. Interment will follow.
