Hundreds honour motorcyclist killed in crash during memorial ride to Selkirk

By Justin Luschinski

Rows of motorcycles filled Eveline Street in Selkirk last Sunday, as bikers from around the province paid tribute to well-known motorcyclist Robert "Robyn" Gray.

Bikers rode from the Nor-Villa Hotel in Winnipeg to the Selkirk Legion last Sunday to honour the life of Gray. The East St. Paul resident died tragically as a result of a motorcycle accident in the RM of Springfield on May 24 at the age of 71. RCMP believe Gray was headed west when a 16-year-old driver hit him from behind. Gray was then thrown from his motorcycle and subsequently struck by both a westbound and eastbound vehicle.

Gray, who had been riding for more than 50 years, was a former organizer of the popular Winnipeg motorcycle show, Rolling Thunder, at the World of Wheels and, at one time, owned a Harley-Davidson dealership in Winnipeg.

Bonnie Smith, Gray's wife, said she's happy that so many people stopped by to celebrate her husband's life.

"This is exactly what Rob would have wanted, everyone coming together to celebrate his life," Smith said. "Rob was a family man, he loved his kids, his grandchildren, family meant the most to him. The greatest thing about the community is the sense of unity.

"Thank you to everyone who came out, it's helped me get through this." Smith and other bikers described Gray as being "outgoing," and that he had the ability to talk to anyone.

Gray was born on January 1, 1947, in East St. Paul, and he always had a passion for mechanics. He was one of the founding members and past president of The Spartans, a local biker gang roughly based out of the same area. He turned his passion for bikes into a Harley-Davidson franchise that was described as "one of the largest inventories in Western Canada."

Lori Houston, a longtime friend of Gray and Smith, said Gray had two sides to him, and that with people he trusted, he was kind and funny.

"When he was out in public, he was more serious, stern, a little shy. But when he was with us, he was dancing, being goofy, being himself," Houston said.

Hitting the road for MS

RECORD PHOTOS BY JUSTIN LUSCHINSKI

Dozens of motorcyclists gathered at Boston Pizza in Selkirk for the Motorcycle Ride for MS last Saturday. The ride took motorcyclists from Selkirk to Lakeview Resort in Hecla and then back to Boston Pizza in Selkirk for silent auctions and live music. Chudds Powersports teamed up with Boston Pizza Selkirk to host the event. Proceeds from the event are being donated to the MS Society of Manitoba. Canada has the highest rate of multiple sclerosis (MS) in the world, with an estimated one in 340 Canadians living with the disease. While it is most often diagnosed in young adults aged 15 to 40, younger children and older adults are also diagnosed with the disease. For more information, visit mssociety.ca.

Olympian Tyler Mislawchuk, who hails from Oak Bank, Man., stopped at the Skinner's Locks Market in Lockport with the RBC Mobile Truck last Sunday. This marked the RBC Mobile Truck's first appearance in Manitoba. Tyler is currently ranked 10th on the ITU World Triathlon Series. The 23-year-old made his Olympic debut in Rio in 2016 and his recent achievements include a breakthrough podium finish at a triathlon World Cup event in Belgium.

Hundreds of motorcyclists took part in a memorial motorcycle ride for Robyn Gray from Winnipeg's Nor-Villa Hotel to the Selkirk Legion last Sunday.

"He loved to laugh, and he loved to be around with people who brought that (laughter) out of him."

Nearly 400 motorcyclists took part in last Sunday's ride, which included a stop in front of the Marine Museum, a place Gray often rode to on his motorcycle as part of his own Remembrance

Day ride to honour veterans.

Gray had a small plush bear he called "Buddy" that would sit on the front of his handlebars, going everywhere he went. Smith retrieved the doll, and tied Buddy to her own bike, so she could honour his memory as she lead the group.

Jousters to compete at Cooks Creek Medieval Festival

Staff

Jousters from around the world are gearing up to compete for prestige and honour at this weekend's Cooks Creek Medieval Festival.

The two-day festival featuring music, dance, food and merriment, runs Saturday, July 28 and Sunday, July 29 at the Immaculate Conception Church and Grotto in Cooks Creek.

"There are only about 110 competitive jousters in the world, and we are pleased to be hosting 11, who are amongst the best," said Gary Senft, lead organizer of the biennial fundraiser to maintain and restore the Immaculate Conception Church and Grotto, a nationally- and provincially-designated heritage site, where the festivities take place. "For the first time in festival history, we've even added a second day to accommodate the finals."

Radar Goddard, a leading Canadian joust organizer and internationally-renowned jouster who is just returning from competing in Finland, says the magnificent backdrop of the Cathedral and Grotto in Cooks Creek have been major draws in attracting international jousters to the Medieval Festival.

"We are looking forward to once again testing our mettle against jousters from as far away as Portugal, Poland, Finland, Australia, and the U.S., on our own home ground," she said.

Along with displays of full-contact jousting, Senft said Saturday visitors can expect to see Viking re-enactments from Manitoba's Sons of Lugh; LARPing; performances by Prairie Jousters from around the world will compete during this week's Cooks Creek Medieval Festival at the Immaculate Conception Church and Grotto in Cooks Creek. The two-day event runs Saturday, July 28 and Sunday, July 29. Gates open at noon Saturday, and 1 p.m. Sunday, with festivities running until 6 p.m. daily.

Caravan Tribal Belly Dance and exhibitions of the knightly arts, such as fencing and archery, by the Barony of Castel Rouge, Winnipeg's branch of the Society of Creative Anachronism. There will also be medieval dances in the Grotto, early music in the Cathedral and an ever-growing merchants' village.

The Manitoba Chess Association will also be hosting a chess tournament, with finals culminating in a life-size chess match, with people dressing and acting as live chess pieces. For children, the day will also include medieval games, a petting zoo, puppetry, a bouncy castle and more. Senft says the ever-popular evening feast has already sold out, however, grub will be available for purchase onsite, as is a Garden of Ale for refreshing libations.

The undisputed highlight of the festival, however, will be Sunday's international jousting finals, where the winners from Saturday's jousts will face off.

The 2018 roster of jousters are from Alberta, Quebec, Australia, Finland, Portugal, Poland as well as the United States.

Senft would also like to remind everyone to get into the spirit of things.

"We are encouraging guests to put the fun in fundraiser and come dressed in period costume - even if it's just a Robin Hood cap," Senft said with a laugh.

The Immaculate Conception Church and Grotto in Cooks Creek is located at Highway 212 at Zora Road. Gates open at noon Saturday, and 1 p.m. Sunday, with festivities running until 6 p.m. daily.

D.O.G Days, market returning to waterfront in August

Staff

The Selkirk Waterfront will play host to D.O.G Days of Summer and a new market throughout the month of August.

Selkirk's weekly Waterfront festival kicks off Aug. 1 and features entertainment, food vendors and fresh veggies, canned goods and more for sale at the newly minted Selkirk Port Market that runs from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Every Wednesday in August the City of Selkirk along with the Selkirk Record present D.O.G Days of Summer at The Waterfront, sponsored by Sunova and Selkirk Biz. This year the market will be run by Angie Neeth, a long-time vendor at several markets, including the Selkirk Waterfront.

Neeth, who will be selling her Kake Fraüelein products, which consists of traditional and German-inspired baking, said she's excited to take the helm at the Selkirk market.

"I am head over heels thrilled about taking on this project," Neeth stated in a release on Monday. "Having been a part of the Selkirk Market in the past as a vendor, I have found it to be a great place to showcase my products. The people that come and visit and take part in the market are second to none and very supportive of what everyone has to offer."

Vendors interested in a spot can contact Neeth at Selkirkportmarket@hotmail.com.

Neeth is taking over for Joy Sul, who ran the market for three years and built a market that's rooted in success. An entrepreneur who also runs the Skinner's Locks Market and is an RM of St. Andrews Councillor, Sul's busy schedule forced her to step down this year, but she's thrilled to learn someone new has come on board.

Vanessa Figus, the city's marketing and communications co-ordinator, says they have an exciting line-up of local musicians scheduled to perform during the events, which run from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., Aug. 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29. Orvis Raleigh and Kalyna Morrow-Litke kick things off on Aug. 1.

"People can bring a lunch, or visit a food vendor, and really just enjoy our beautiful Waterfront and the spectacular weather we've been having this summer," Figus said.

Figus said everyone is encouraged to bring their own dogs out for D.O.G Days, and the city will have water bowls at The Waterfront to make sure our four-legged friends stay cool.

Dunnottar to host Walk for Water this Sunday

By Lindsey Enns

The Lake Winnipeg Foundation (LWF) is calling on hundreds of lake-lovers to lace up and walk along the shores of Dunnottar in support of a healthy Lake Winnipeg this Sunday.

"LWF was founded around a kitchen table in 2005, and our supporters have always understood that small actions add up to make a big difference," said Alexis Kanu, LWF's executive director. "Change happens when people come together. Walk for Water is an opportunity for lake-lovers across Manitoba and beyond to take action, together, as citizens of our watershed."

This year's Walk for Water event will take place on Sunday, July 29 beginning at the Dunnottar Community Club. Registration starts at 9:15 a.m. with the five kilometre walk beginning at 10 a.m.

Walk for Water is the largest grassroots fundraising event in support of a healthy Lake Winnipeg where participants use a pledge form to collect donations from friends, family, co-workers and teammates.

Following the walk will be a barbecue as well as some chances to win prizes.

Over the last 10 years, the Walk for Water has raised more than $10,000 and has become a family tradition for many.

To participate in the Walk for Water event or for more information, visit lakewinnipegfoundation.org. The "Walk for Water Dunnottar" event page can also be found on Facebook.

Special Olympics Donut helps mark Global Day of Inclusion

Staff

Tim Hortons in Selkirk helped mark the Global Day of Inclusion in celebration of Special Olympics' 50th anniversary last Saturday.

Tim Hortons, as a proud partner of Special Olympics Canada, joined in on the celebration of this milestone by releasing a limited edition Special Olympics Donut, designed by Special Olympics athlete Savannah Lussier. The donut was only available on July 21, with all proceeds going to Special Olympics community-based programs across the country.

Special Olympics athlete Savannah Lussier, a 14 year-old from Grand Prairie, AB, worked closely with Tim Hortons to create the donut using her favourite flavours: a delicious Honey Cruller dipped in chocolate fondant, topped with red and white sprinkles – which are the colours of Special Olympics.

"Sports has let me meet so many of my friends and I was so excited to make this donut to celebrate," Savannah Lussier, Athlete, Special Olympics Alberta stated in a release earlier this month. "Making the donut was so much fun and I can't wait to see people enjoying it together with their friends and families."

Cheryle Bacon of Community Living Selkirk, which is committed to the full inclusion of people living with intellectual disabilities, wanted to thank Tim Hortons for their recognition of Global Day of Inclusion.

"We are proud to be part of a community who is so committed to making their city more inclusive," Bacon said. "We have seen an increased awareness and desire by the business community and community at large to work together to break down barriers to help create a community where everyone is welcome."

"It is so good to be able to help out as part of this great community," Tim Hortons operations manager Wendy Holroyd added.

Tim Hortons has been a partner of Special Olympics Canada since 2016, as the Lead Corporate Sponsor of the Special Olympics Canada Active Start program (2 to 6 year olds) and Fundamentals program (6 to 12 year olds). Through these programs, Tim Hortons hopes to share a unified message of #ChooseToInclude with the more than 45,000 athletes with an intellectual disability currently participating in Special Olympics across the country.

"Tim Hortons is proud of the role we've played in Canadian communities for over 50 years and is thrilled to work with Special Olympics Canada, an organization that shares our value of inclusion" says Sami Siddiqui, President, Tim Hortons Canada. "Together we hope to inspire our Guests to see the power of inclusion through sport, and create communities where every person is accepted and welcomed, regardless of ability."

Drowning report highlights need to wear life jackets, keep children close

Staff

The release of the 2018 Canada – Manitoba Drowning Report helped mark National Drowning Prevention Week in Manitoba last week.

The study summarizes the most recent data on water-related fatalities available from the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner for Manitoba. The data refers to the most current five-year period, 2011 to 2015.

Among the findings is 81 per cent of drowning victims in Manitoba are male, while 19 per cent are female. Thirty-nine per cent are drowning in lakes and ponds, while 38 per cent drown in rivers and 73 per cent of drownings in Manitoba occurred from May to September. Swimming was the most common recreational activity where water-related fatalities occurred followed by walking/running or playing near the water, power boating, canoeing and then fishing.

The report also includes the top risk factors in boating and swimming among children, young adults and older adults. Those risks include not wearing a personal flotation device, alcohol consumption, being alone and for children not being properly supervised.

"A tragedy on the water can occur in the blink of an eye, which means never leaving children alone near water and always keeping them in sight," Development Minister Rochelle Squires stated in a release last week. "Small children should always be within arm's reach around the water and we encourage everyone, especially young children and those who cannot swim, to always wear a life-jacket."

National Drowning Prevention Week is a life-saving initiative sponsored by the Lifesaving Society of Canada. The annual campaign is devoted to raising awareness of the risks of drowning and is focused on two key messages:

- Always wear a life jacket while in or near water, and
- Keep children within arm's reach when swimming or playing in water.

RED RIVER > CHALET BEACH > LAKE WINNIPEG

> ARNIE WEIDL

Sometimes you gotta jump in to save your rod

Welcome fellow fishers. The sun reflected off the flowing muddy Red River waters past the Selkirk waterfront as I parked on the pier beside a family fishing last Tuesday. Leaving my car, I began talking to a chap relaxing in a folding chair, heavily tanned with curly dark hair escaping from the sides of his cap. The chiseled features of his face were covered with a salt and pepper week old beard. He was outgoing and said he was Jeff Mell from Petersfield. When I asked him for a fishing story, he said, "Well, we've got one that happened to my daughter Hallie and I at Chalet Beach last week." "Great", I said. Smiling, he carried on. It was five in the morning with daybreak just coming up in the east. The water was silvery, flat and motionless, the air damp and still. Only Jeff and his daughter stood on the cool, sandy shore as they cast out. The "whish" of their rods arcing through the air, the singing of their lines flying from their reels and the plopping of their weighted, baited hooks into the water broke the morning silence. Jeff bent down and placed the butt of his rod in a holder screwed into the sand. He turned to Hallie to say something just as he heard his reel screaming as it played out line. He turned to see his holder and rod streaking through the air then knifing like a torpedo from the shore just below the water's surface. Without thinking he bound into the water with all his clothes on, his eyes glued to the yellow ring on the end of his escaping rod. Great splashing sounds arose as Jeff leapt and fell forward grasping his rod. Clutching it he turned wading to shore with his line pulling hard. Standing dripping at the water's edge he began the ritual of hauling back, then pointing his rod toward his catch and reeling in.

In time a great grey and white catfish became visible against the rising sun. Jeff slowly reeled it to shore, its tail slapping the water. The silken, glossy fish rested in a few inches of water rolling over occasionally. Jeff rested a bit then went to it, measured it and set it free. No sooner had he pushed the fish to deeper water than Hallie screamed from the water's edge. Jeff looked up to see her rod bent completely over. His legs strained through the water as he rushed to her side. Standing together, watching the movement of her rod, their experience told them this was a different catch. It would pull like a steady weight then snap and run. Jeff cried out, "I think it's a jack, don't let go Hallie!" She dug her bare feet into the wet sand at the waters edge and worked her line bringing the fish in slowly, letting it play itself out. Soon the ivory belly of a giant jack rolling on its side came into view. It seemed to stop fighting as Hallie brought it to shore. The fishes green speckled head and back gleamed as it lay in a shallow water sand trough. Again dad measured it at just under four feet and let it go.

Now just as Jeff was finishing his story, Larry, his dad (Jeff looked just like Larry - only younger) came up to us joking, "If he had been watching his rod, he wouldn't have gotten wet! I guess I can't say too much though because two weeks ago on the Gimli pier I wasn't watching either." He continued, "I had a string with a sauger and pickereel on it in the water. A guy walked past me looking over the side of the pier at my catch and said, "That's a nice jackfish!" I looked at him exclaiming I hadn't caught a jack! I looked at my string and don't you know a jack had come up in the water and was hanging there with half my sauger in its mouth!"

A week or so ago I spent some time along the Winnipeg River spinning tales with our angler friends and took the picture of Jay Reyes of Winnipeg with a nice pickereel he caught. He didn't have a story for us but another chap by the name of Joe Funk sure did! Joe was a tall, thoughtful guy with white hair and mustache. He told of a time years ago when he was a young lad, his dad took him and his brother to Snowshoe Lake to fish. They flew in from Nutimik only to realize they had forgotten their cooking utensils except for a tiny cooking pot. Three days of cooking the fish they caught, along with other foods for three guys, in that little pot became a nightmare. As he told his story, the experience the Unrau's of Stonewall had I written about two weeks ago where they learned to cook fish on a stick over an open camp fire came to mind but I didn't have the heart to mention it!

In the July 19 edition of The Selkirk Record the "Retired dentist reflects

Plaque honours Selkirk soldiers who died defending Hong Kong

By Justin Luschinski

A new plaque honouring Selkirk soldiers who died defending Hong Kong now hangs inside the Selkirk Legion.

The plaque honours the defense of Hong Kong, where Canadian forces fought against the Japanese invasion of 1941. Nearly 300 Canadians lost their lives in the battle, including 14 residents of Selkirk and the surrounding area.

The plaque installation and presentation took place on July 8, and featured a few guest speakers, including Selkirk Mayor Larry Johannson.

Johannson said the Hong Kong invasion deserves more attention and respect from the general public.

"I'm very proud that we have the plaque here. It was a very important battle, but I feel like it deserves more attention," Johannson said. "The death toll was huge, and many brave soldiers gave their lives to defend Hong Kong. The fact that they defended their post till Christmas Day shows you the courage of those Canadian soldiers."

The battle began on Dec. 8, 1941, and lasted till Christmas Day, when the Hong Kong defenders were forced to surrender. The soldiers faced overwhelming odds, as the Japanese were nearly double their size, with an entire squadron of planes as well as several destroyers and one cruiser, bombing the island. Approximately 290 Canadians were killed in the battle, with 264 more dying in Japanese POW camps after the surrender.

Dennis Stewart, past president of the Selkirk Legion, recalls how his father woke up with night terrors after surviving the battle.

"I remember when he came back to Pilot Mound, he saw me when I was a baby. He stepped right overtop of me, he didn't recognize me," Stewart said.

The plaque resides in the Selkirk Legion, providing a bit of the history behind Canada's involvement in the battle. A smaller plaque will be placed beside it, listing the names of the Selkirk soldiers who gave their lives for the battle.

Triple S Fair and Rodeo organizers hope to rope in more volunteers

By Justin Luschinski

The Triple S Fair and Rodeo had a successful year, but organizers behind the event say they are hoping to bring more volunteers on board to help keep it going.

The 53rd annual event drew in around 8,000 attendees, with many more attending the free events in and around Selkirk. The event is considered the most well-known rodeo in the province, and draws in riders and attendees from around the Interlake.

Rea Pennington, the president of the St. Clements and St. Andrews Agricultural Society, said they are seeking more support to keep the rodeo going.

"The event is mostly run by volunteers, and it's becoming an awful lot of work. I've been involved with it for 25 years, and there was a time when the work wasn't bothering me," Pennington said. "It's essential that people step up, a lot of the long time members are starting to feel burnt out."

Pennington said the entire event manages to break even every year, but it's not a large financial success. It's tough to find contestants for the rodeo itself, as usually riders like to compete in multiple events at a time, but since so many other competitions have shut down, it's hard to justify the travel expense for anybody looking to compete.

Many attendees love the event, and they say it's an important part of Selkirk's identity.

Roger Desautels brought his grandsons Sam and Theo to enjoy some sun, candy, and carnival rides at this year's fair and rodeo on July 14. The parade also brought in visitors from across Manitoba. Desautels said it's a fantastic opportunity to enjoy time with his family.

"It's a great opportunity for everyone to come together, to have the businesses exposed, to show off everyone who's doing good things for the community, especially on a beautiful day like this," Desautels said.

Mary Kamiel, a first-time rodeo attendee, said that she fell in love with the city.

"This is wonderful, my daughters are having a great time," Kamiel said.

Pennington said the rodeo organizers are going to be pushing for volunteers in the next few months, and are looking for some people to take over for some of the organizational duties as well.

Those interested in becoming a volunteer can call 204-485-4854 or 204-757-7901 or visit selkirkrodeo.ca.

City inviting Selkirk youth invited to Play on the Move this summer

Staff

Local youth are being encouraged to enjoy the great outdoors with through the City of Selkirk's new free program, Play on the Move.

Play on the Move is open to school-aged children aged 6-12 and offers a structured and supervised environment where they can play sports and games with other kids, make new friends and take part in a healthy lifestyle.

Shelley Leonard, the city's program co-ordinator for culture, recreation and green transportation, says Play on the Move is designed to get kids outside, play and have fun with others in a safe and organized environment.

"We're really excited about this new program that offers so many great opportunities for Selkirk youth," Leonard stated in a release on Monday. "The weather is fantastic this summer and it's great to get kids out into nature and living a healthy lifestyle."

Play on the Move, which started on Thursday, July 25 and runs until Tuesday, Aug. 21, will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at Daerwood School on Tuesdays and Ruth Hooker School on Thursdays. The program is free of charge to Selkirk youth.

Joel Makara, the city's summer programmer, says there will be plenty for kids to do. Activities will vary from week to week, depending on how many kids are out, Makara said, but games like ladder golf, Frisbee toss, dodgeball and soccer will likely occur.

"It's going to vary from week to week depending on participants but I have a variety of different games that we could play," Makara said. "And also I would definitely take suggestions from the children coming out to the event because in the end it is all about them and making their experience as fun as it can be."

Ian Tesarski running for mayor of St. Andrews

By Lindsey Enns

A 19-year St. Andrews resident and the RM's former director of operations wants to become the community's next mayor.

Ian Tesarski says after speaking with several residents in the RM, he wants to give community members a third mayoral candidate option. Tesarski said he understands the "huge job and commitment" the job entails after working in the municipal environment for the past six years.

Tesarski previously worked for the RM of St. Andrews as their director of operations for four years before becoming the RM of Rockwood's director of operations. He has also been a part of the St. Andrews Fire Department for the past 16 years.

"With my experience and knowledge of how a Municipality runs I know I can lead our Council to be a benefit to the Municipality," Tesarski stated in an email to the Record last week. "I do not promise to change the world, but I do promise to run Council as it should be run. I know we have a good group of staff and they must be able to do their jobs. The trick is they need the proper policies and by-laws to guide them in the direction Council/citizens would like to go.

"This election is not about me or what I want. It is about our great Municipality and getting the best for our residents."

As the Record previously reported,

IAN TESARSKI

St. Andrews Mayor George Pike will be seeking reelection and St. Andrews Coun. Joy Sul is also running for mayor. Selkirk Mayor Larry Johannson, West St. Paul Mayor Bruce Henley and St. Clements Mayor Debbie Fiebelkorn have also all confirmed they plan to seek another term as mayor. West St. Paul Coun. Cheryl Christian has also announced her intention to run for mayor.

The next general municipal election will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 24. The RM of Victoria Beach, the Town of Winnipeg Beach, and the Village of Dunnottar will hold their election on Friday, July 27.

Candidates must register within a certain time frame. Mayor, reeve and councillor candidates can now be registered until Sept. 18.

All candidates must register with their local elections officer before they can begin accepting contributions and spend money on their campaign.

Unhealthy Wishes Are Really Disguised Complaints

precious present moments wishing they were someplace or somewhere else! The true blessings of life are things we often take for granted. Not being in pain is near the top of the list. Being able to see, to hear, to walk and talk are gifts beyond measure. The ability to get a good night's sleep is a luxury for some. Freedom from the struggles of war and hunger would be heaven to many in this world.

If we have these blessings why would we disturb our inherent potential for the experience of joy by focusing on what we decide is "missing" from our lives? This is not to negate positive processes of dreaming, setting goals and manifesting. These processes work best, however, upon a foundation of deep appreciation and gratitude for the many blessings we already have. So, my birthday wish this year will be again for the health and happiness. Not just for me, but for you too.

Gwen Randall-Young is an author and award-winning Psychotherapist. For permission to reprint this article, or to obtain books, cds or MP3's, visit www.gwen.ca. Follow Gwen on Facebook for daily inspiration.

How many times have you made a wish before you blew out your birthday candles? Do you remember any of the things you wished for? Did any of those wishes come true? I cannot remember any of mine specifically. I do know that I decided such a wish should not be wasted on material things, so I always wished for things like health and happiness.

I have many blessings to count and will never know if those wishes had anything to do with it. Those were healthy wishes though. The kind that you make and then forget about. You just release them without expectation. Unhealthy wishes are the ones that are really complaints in disguise. A wish for lottery winnings, to be taller or shorter, or have a different face contains the unspoken belief that these things would make us happier.

We cannot really be happy, we reason, because we have not been blessed enough with skills, talents or attributes. Many people waste

Former MLA joins community foundation board of directors

Submitted

Two new faces have joined the ranks of the Selkirk and District Community Foundation Board of Directors, and while the paths that brought them to their new positions are different, there's a common thread that makes them, like all other board members, quite uniquely suited to their roles.

Greg Dewar is a familiar name and face in the Triple S region, having served as the region's MLA for a whopping 25-in-a-half years.

That alone makes him well suited for a seat on the SDCF board but so too does the fact he's a lifelong resident and he has a very personal connection to the SDCF, the Greg Foundation.

Dewar's niece, Kristin Sutherland, passed away tragically following a 2014 car crash when she was just 27 years old. Her parents, Rick and Laurie, created an endowment fund and an annual fundraising event called Kristin's Walk For Kids.

"The unfortunate circumstances led to a chance for the family to honour her memory and to raise money for the Foundation," Dewar said, noting his niece worked with children. "That was her brief life's work, working with young people, and though I don't want to speak for her parents, I know they're thrilled to be able to work with the Foundation, the Foundation has a great reputation in our community and they know the funds they raise will be put to good use."

It was Selkirk Mayor Larry Johannson who asked Dewar if he would allow his name to stand for nomination for the SDCF board. The two worked together in their respective political positions, and have become good friends.

"I was asked by the Mayor of Selkirk if I would agree to have my name put forward and I was honoured to be asked and then I was quite thrilled to be appointed to what I consider to be this very important and very trusted community organization," Dewar said.

"I think it's a natural step for me to be on the board, I've worked with many of the organizations that the Foundation supports. As the former MLA I think I have a good understanding of their needs, I also know the community very well and I know the community leadership, so I'm quite happy and thrilled to be a part of this group."

While Dewar thinks his entire political career has helped prepare him for this role, his tenure as Finance Minister during the final stages gave him added insight that he believes will translate well to his role on the board.

"At that particular role you're at the highest level of decision making and (because of that) I have a better understanding of all the different roles of different government departments and just the thought making that happens at that level of decision makers, so hopefully I can contribute the experience I gained there to the board as well."

While Dewar has known of the Foundation since its inception, his new colleague, Barbara Knoll learned of it in recent years and immediately became involved, through a gift that will be delivered at a future date.

"Four years ago, when I was revising my Will, I noticed that my residual beneficiaries were all Winnipeg based charities. Since I had lived and worked in Winnipeg for most of my life, that made sense, but after moving to St. Clements in 2006, I felt I should establish a stronger connection to my more immediate community here," said Knoll, who was nominated by St. Clements Mayor and Council.

"Living in a rural area with few neighbours, I had no knowledge of local charitable organizations other than the Gaynor Family Regional Library, the Gwen Fox Gallery and the Gordon Howard Centre. My husband suggested the Selkirk and District Community Foundation. I had never heard of it and neither had my lawyer. Looking back, it was an excellent decision to name the Selkirk Foundation as one of the residual beneficiaries in my Will."

Dewar said it's an honour for both he and Knoll to take their place in what has become the long and storied history of a successful foundation, that currently has assets totalling $9.8 million and every year they give out more grants, most recently a total of $311,034.

Arborg's Little Elska donates teddy bears to Camp Stepping Stones

Submitted

Camp Stepping Stones, our regional children's grief camp, celebrated a very sweet and most generous donation this year.

Every child attending camp received a special teddy bear from Interlake-based business, Little Elska, a total in-kind donation of $3,000. The bears were patiently waiting for the campers on their bunks as they arrived on their first afternoon at Camp Arnes.

Little Elska is a home-based business owned and operated by Jackie Horvat out of Arborg, Manitoba, which is located roughly 100 kilometres north of Selkirk. They specialize in hand-made products such as personalized blankets, back packs, stuffed animals and a wide assortment of personalized items that can be customized for each customer in a special way, with your child's name, birth-date etc.

When Jackie heard about Camp Stepping Stones, she knew she had to contribute in some way.

"A friend of mine mentioned Camp Stepping Stones and I knew right away this was something we wanted to donate to. There are so many reasons why everyone should give more hugs, and we were so proud to provide each camper with their own bear to hug, and have as a special keepsake."

Tammie-Lee Rogowski, the region's Clinical Team Manager Palliative Care, Home Care Nursing Services and Regional Wound Care Program who oversees the camp was overjoyed when Jackie reached out regarding the donation.

"It was very meaningful for the children to arrive at camp and find their personal bear waiting for them on their bunk. Even more special for the children was writing on a red paper heart the name of the loved that died and placing it in their bear."

According to the camp's volunteer liaison, Sandra Milotte, over the course of the weekend, the bears provided comfort to the children and acted as a bridge to share their feelings and experiences with other campers.

"Their bear companions accompanied them on all camp activities and acted as a memory of their camp experience when they went home."

Pamela McCallum, executive director of the Interlake-Eastern Health

Foundation, said donations like this really pull on the heart strings because of the lasting impact it has on the kids.

"Camp Stepping Stones is an annual grief camp that the Interlake-Eastern RHA runs for children who have experienced the loss of a loved one. The added touch of a personalized teddy bear that they can have and hold during their camp experience creates a really sweet memory for them and provides lasting comfort which is one of the key objectives of camp," McCallum said.

Pirates beat Bonivital to win Midget 'AAA' city baseball title

By Brian Bowman

The North Winnipeg Pirates had a flair for the dramatics in the Midget "AAA" baseball final on Sunday.

Trailing 2-1 in their final at-bat, North Winnipeg scored a pair of runs with two outs to edge the Bonivital Black Sox 3-2 to claim the city championship.

"It was a hard-fought battle," said Pirates' head coach Gary Dear. "It was a very exciting game."

Ty Smith started North Winnipeg's rally with a walk and then was sacrificed to second by Devon Cassan.

After a hit batter, Wyatt Whitwell grounded out to first to advance the runners.

Liam Allen was intentionally walked to load the bases and then Kalli Einarson drew a 10-pitch walk to score a run.

"That was huge," Dear said, "because the first two pitches were strikes that he fouled off. He battled and battled until he got the walk."

Cole Olfert then scored the winning run on a passed ball.

The wild comeback was an impressive one by the Pirates.

"It was amazing," Dear said. "They all did the little things that you can't teach guys."

Davis Fenske pitched a great game for the Pirates, allowing just three hits through seven innings. He shut the door on Bonivital in the seventh, getting them out in order.

"He was unreal," Dear said. "We had him pitch the game against St. James earlier in the week and he won as well that got us going."

"In my mind, he's our top pitcher right now and he is just 16 years old, which is amazing."

North Winnipeg started the playoffs with an 11-1 win over St. James on July 18 before edging Winnipeg South 5-4 last Saturday.

North Winnipeg trailed Winnipeg South 4-2 in the top of the seventh.

"We were never in any trouble against St. James," Dear recalled. "And then the game against South, we went into extra innings and won 5-4."

Later that day, the Pirates were blasted 12-0 by Bonivital and then North Winnipeg defeated the Elmwood Giants 5-3 on Sunday.

The Pirates, though, won't have much time to celebrate their city title as the provincials begin this Friday at Winnipeg South.

The competition is expected to be real tough at this year's provincials.

"There's a couple of real strong rural teams," Dear noted. "Carillon is extremely strong, they have eight or nine 18 year olds on their team, so they're very strong and we split with them during the regular season. South Central has a strong team and so does Pembina Hills.

"We'll need every break because winning a provincials is pretty tough."

North Winnipeg will begin Pool 2 action Friday (6 p.m.) against South Central.

On Saturday, the Pirates will battle Winnipeg South at 9:15 a.m. and Pembina Hills at 3:15 p.m.

The playoffs begin on Sunday.

St. Boniface sweeps Interlake in MJBL playoffs

By Brian Bowman

The Interlake Blue Jays' playoffs didn't last very long.

Interlake's post-season lasted just three days after the St. Boniface Legionaires swept the Blue Jays in their best-of-three first-round series.

"We just went cold at the wrong time," said Blue Jays' head coach Adam Kirk. "We'd been really hot lately and you hope that things would continue."

The Blue Jays opened the series with a 4-1 loss to the Legionaires in Stonewall. Interlake then was shutout 5-0 by St. Boniface on Saturday at Whittier Park in Winnipeg.

"They pitched well and kept us off balance and it got into our guys' heads," Kirk said. "Once it got into our heads, it was hard to recover from."

In Game 1 of the series, St. Boniface scored a run in the top of the first inning and then added three more in the third.

Interlake's Derek Petrakso scored the Blue Jays' lone run in the fifth inning.

The Legionaires outthit the Blue Jays 9-6.

Ryan Moroz pitched seven full innings for the Blue Jays, allowing nine hits, three earned runs, and a walk.

He recorded seven strikeouts.

Despite the short playoff run, Interlake had a real good regular season, finishing with a 13-11 record.

They have even higher expectations for next season.

"As a whole, we had a very good season," Kirk said. "We doubled our win total and finished above .500. - definitely nothing to complain about. We had a short playoff but we'll learn from it, hopefully, and we come back next with hopefully the same guys and take a run at it."

Kirk wanted to thank all of the volunteers, sponsors, and fans for their support this past season.

"We appreciate their support and hopefully we'll see them out next year and hopefully we'll have a better playoff run," he said.

In the other two MJBL playoff series, the Carillon Sultans swept the Pembina Valley Orioles (winning 4-3 and 7-1) while the Elmwood Giants easily took care of the Altona Bisons with victories of 12-2 and 16-2.

St. Boniface will now meet the first-place St. James A's while Elmwood will take on Carillon in a pair of semi-final series.

North Winnipeg Pirates defeated in Bantam 'AAA' city final

Staff

The North Winnipeg Pirates reached the final of the Bantam "AAA" city playoffs Sunday where they lost 7-2 to the Winnipeg South Chiefs.

North Winnipeg earlier defeated Winnipeg South 8-6 on Saturday evening in a game that decided home-field advantage for the final.

The Pirates also defeated the Bonivital Black Sox 11-2, Red River Valley Pioneers 11-1, and the St. James A's 9-7 in the playoffs.

North Winnipeg will now turn its attention to the Bantam "AAA" provincials, which will take place Aug. 3-5 at St. James Optimist Park in Winnipeg.

Meanwhile, in PeeWee "AAA" action, North Winnipeg trailed Bonivital 1-0 in their best-of-three final series heading into Game 2 this past Tuesday (no score from that game was available at press time).

Bonivital won Game 1 by a 7-5 score.

If the Pirates won Game 2, the deciding game of the series will be played Thursday.

North Winnipeg advanced to the final after sweeping Winnipeg South in a best-of-three series.

The Pirates won by scores of 5-3 and 11-4.

North leads after Manitoba Senior Golf Championship's opening round

Staff

Matlock's Garth Collings was in a six-way tie for seventh spot after the first round of the Manitoba Senior Golf Championship in Carman.

Collings carded a 5-over 76 on Monday.

Carman's Bruce North ripped up his home course on Day 1 with a sizzling 68.

That was six strokes ahead of Carman's Wayne Giesbrecht, Bridges Golf Course's Menno Zacharias, and St. Boniface's Bill French.

St. Andrews' Tom Humniski, who golfs out of Elmhurst, fired an opening-round 6-over 77. That tied him for 13th with three other players.

The final two rounds were played Tuesday and Wednesday but no scores were available at press time.

Meanwhile, the Teulon Golf & Country Club's Barb Lafleche was in sole possession of second place after the first round of the Manitoba Senior Women's Golf Championship in Carman.

Lafleche shot a 10-over 82 on Monday to trail Niakwa's Tammy Gibson, the first-round leader, by three strokes.

Rounding out the top five after Day 1 were Southwood's Rhonda Orr (83), St. Charles' Gail Kennedy (84), St. Charles' Janice Young (84), Breezy Bend's Leslie Olson (84) and Southwood's Heather Shayna (84).

The final two rounds of the 54-hole event were also played this past Tuesday and Wednesday.

Selkirk FC ties with Dunvegan Castle in MMSL action

Staff

Selkirk FC battled to a 2-2 draw with Dunvegan Castle on Monday evening in Manitoba Major Soccer League Division 2 action at the Rec Complex.

Chris Szukiewicz scored Selkirk's first goal on a header and then Jordan Bruenig capitalized on a penalty-shot opportunity for their second goal.

Bruenig's goal tied the score at 2-2 and then Selkirk FC applied most of the pressure in the second half but could not net another goal.

Selkirk FC, now 3-4-2 on the season, has 11 points to occupy sole possession of sixth place in the nine-team division.

Their next action is Monday (9:30 p.m.) when they play Pescara at Shaughnessy Park in north Winnipeg.

In Division 6 MMSL action, the Tri-S Strike Force lost 6-1 to the Saint James Spurs last Friday at the Rec Complex.

Ross Pinhammer led the Spurs with four goals while Daniel Rempel added a pair.

HyHram Dueck replied for Tri-S.

The Strike Force will play Les Blues this Saturday (4 p.m.) at Buhler Recreation Park in Winnipeg.

Garion Lefteruk, right, and Selkirk FC played to a 2-2 draw with Dunvegan Castle during MMSL action Monday evening at the Rec Complex.

Ngo finishes tied for seventh at men's amateur golf championship

By Brian Bowman

The summer has been real good to Justin McDonald so far.

McDonald continued his stellar play on the golf course this month as he won the Nott Autocorp Manitoba Men's Amateur golf championship last Thursday.

McDonald led after each of the first two rounds at Quarry Oaks and continued his dominance during the final two rounds at Glendale.

It was McDonald's first amateur title. And he did it in style, finishing eight shots ahead Eric Johnson.

McDonald, 32, carded rounds of 68, 70, 73, and 74 for a 3-under 285 total.

The Breezy Bend member was the only golfer to finish under par after the four days of competition.

Breezy Bend's Johnson was second at 5-over, followed by Niakwa's Todd Fanning, a five-time amateur champion, who wrapped up play at 295.

McDonald also won the mid-amateur title at Falcon Lake back on July 5. McDonald dominated there as well, finishing nine strokes in front of Matlock's Garth Collings.

Selkirk's Noel Ngo, who golfs out of Pine Ridge was the top local player, finishing tied for seventh with three other players.

Ngo fired rounds of 75, 71, 81 and 73 for a 12-over 300.

"Other than the third day where I had a couple of triple (bogeys) and a double, I thought I had a good tournament," he said, noting he took a year off from golf in 2017.

"I was right in the mix. There were a couple of bad holes on the third day."

The conditions on Day 3 were pretty tough for most of the field.

"It was windy and the greens were running at 12 1/2," Ngo said. "They were really fast and that's something I'm not used to. Other than that, I thought I played pretty good. I felt I was in the groove the first two days."

Ngo will now set his sights on the Canadian Men's Amateur Championship in Duncan/Qualicum Beach, B.C. in early August.

He will be one of several Manitobans at the nationals. It will be Ngo's first Canadian amateur although he has competed at the Canadian juniors and at a national level with the University of Manitoba Bisons.

"I'm pretty excited for (the Canadian amateur)," Ngo said, adding he wanted to thank Pine Ridge and Selkirk Golf & Country Club for helping him develop his game over the years.

Ngo was five strokes better than Selkirk's Ben Bandura at the men's amateur. Elmhurst's Bandura carded rounds of 76, 74, 73 and 82.

Other locals included Selkirk's Wesley Hoydalo (tied for 29th, 312) and Selkirk's Brady Bandura (57th, 333).

Missing the cut after two rounds of play were West St. Paul's Adam Ingram (22-over), Petersfield's Easton Donohoe (22-over), and West St. Paul's Brent Ingram (29-over).

Five teams withdraw from Keystone Junior Hockey League

By Brian Bowman

The Keystone Junior Hockey League will have a much different look for the 2018-19 season.

Five teams - the Selkirk Fishermen, Arborg Ice Dawgs, St. Malo Warriors, North Winnipeg Satellites and Lundar Falcons - have decided to leave the KJHL.

Those five teams have made an application to Hockey Manitoba to form a new league. That league, if approved by Hockey Manitoba, will be called the Central Region Junior Hockey League (CRJHL).

"(Players) just can't afford the time to go up north all of the time," said KJHL president Rick Olson Monday afternoon. "There are so many things, kids are playing baseball and are on soccer teams, and a (northern road trip) takes up a whole weekend. Your whole weekend is shot - how do you maintain a part-time job?"

Olson, who is also the president of the CRJHL, said the cost of travel for the southern teams, along with players having busy schedules outside of hockey, as being the main reasons for teams leaving the KJHL.

Other players have chosen to play in the Manitoba Major Junior Hockey League, which has very little travel and teams usually play twice a week.

Going forward, the KJHL will have at least five teams this season. The Peguis Juniors, Fisher River Hawks, OCN Storm, Norway House North Stars, and Cross Lake Islanders are all expected to be back in the KJHL this season.

Nelson House has also expressed interest in rejoining the league but that commitment has not yet been finalized.

Vince Crate, president of the Fisher River Hawks, said the northern teams were informed about the league losing teams about three months ago.

"They cited all kinds of reasons from travel to financial factors, all kinds of reasons such as that," Crate said. "The (KJHL) will still go forward as is with the five remaining teams."

Prospect development camp set to help prepare MJHL hopefuls

Lanny Stewart, MJHL
Web Correspondent

The Manitoba Junior Hockey League Prospect Development Camp is set to take place this week.

This will be the second camp of its kind - the inaugural camp was held last year - and it'll take place in Winnipeg at the Seven Oaks Arena Complex, beginning today through Sunday.

Kevin Saurette, director of operations for the MJHL, said the upcoming event is important in the sense that it's designed to provide the 70-plus players participating with the necessary knowledge and resources to be successful as they prepare to transition to junior hockey.

"The main goal of the camp is to prepare them for what is expected at the junior level along with what it takes to reach higher levels in their development path - whether that's the NCAA, WHL, USHL, U Sports or pro hockey," he said.

Similar to last year's camp, the upcoming four-day affair, slated for 2001 and 2002-born players, will be detailed and informative, Saurette said, as players will receive on and off-ice skill development led by experienced professionals in their respective fields.

The players will be broken up into four teams, with each squad being assigned a current - or graduating MJHL player - as a group leader for the duration of the event. James McIsaac of the Portage Terriers will lead Team White while Will Koop of the Steinbach Pistons will lead Team Grey. Chase Brakel of the Terriers (who recently committed to Cornell University) will help direct Team Red while Jeremy Leipsic of the Terriers (committed to University of Manitoba) will help guide Team Black.

The on-ice portion will consist of practice, skill, and full-game sessions. The practice sessions will be led by current MJHL coaches and are designed to demonstrate to the prospects what they can expect on a daily basis at the junior level.

Position specific skill sessions will be led by professionals intended to cover several specific areas that we feel are important for players to continue to work on as they make the jump to junior hockey.

The games will give the prospects a chance to play in an elite competitive environment against the top players their age in Manitoba, who they will possibly be competing with and against in the MJHL.

It also gives them a chance see where they stand and to showcase themselves to the MJHL coaches and scouts that will be in attendance.

The off-ice portion, meanwhile, will cover elements related to athleticism and mental skills, as well as the technical and tactical skills required to play in the MJHL and beyond.

During the off-ice portion, an MJHL presentation is scheduled, which is expected to highlight what the league and culture is all about, the many benefits and exposure opportunities that are provided, along with examples of the many players that have moved on to higher levels of hockey.

Other off-ice programs slated to take place include a mental preparation presentation, led by Dr. Dean Krielars, who will cover the techniques and overall importance of mental preparation and mental health for elite athletes.

As well, a college hockey presentation will highlight the NCAA option that playing Junior "A" hockey provides to players while also covering important playing and education eligibility guidelines.

Meanwhile, Paul Edmonds, the Winnipeg Jets' play-by-play announcer for TSN 1290, will attend the camp and will be leading a discussion panel, along with three panel members during an MJHL hot-stove session designed to provide players with first-hand advice and information on what it takes to be a successful hockey player.

The camp will also include some former MJHL'ers who have since graduated from the league, including Zach Whitecloud, a former member of the Virden Oil Capitals who signed an entry-level deal with the NHL's Vegas Golden Knights back in March, eventually making his NHL debut in April.

Colby Jaquet, a Selkirk Steelers' prospect, attended last year's event and is looking forward to learning that much more this time around.

"You get a taste of what it's like to play in the MJHL and also how much hard work that goes into getting to the next level," said the 2001-born player, who this past season played for the Midget "AAA" Winnipeg Bruins.

"Obviously my goal ever since I was drafted by Selkirk was to one day be able to put on a Steelers' jersey and wear it with pride. I'm hoping the camp will give me the opportunity to showcase myself but also allow me to see where I'm at in my development and what I need to improve on."

Max Neill, who also attended last year's camp, said he's expecting four days of high-end competitiveness and is looking forward to the challenge.

"I'm really looking forward to the scrimmages," said the 2001-born Steinbach Pistons' prospect, who spent this past season with the Midget "AAA" Central Plains Capitals. "It will be a good indicator of where I'm at and where I want to be come camp time."

OBITUARY

Alfred Dancho
April 14, 1950 - July 20, 2018

It is with broken hearts we announce the sudden passing of our beloved Husband, Dad and Papa, Alfred Dancho at his farm on Friday, July 20, 2018 at the age of 68. He will be lovingly remembered by his wife Trudi of 44 years; his children Jeff (Katherine) and their children Levi, Jase, and baby girl on the way; Heidi (David) and their daughter Eva; and Tiffany (Alvin). He is also survived by his sisters Shirley (Mike), Susan (Wayne), Sylvia (Bill, deceased); brother Garry (Sheila); mother-in-law Erna Jung (children Margarete and Rudi); as well as numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins. He was predeceased by his parents Marguerite and Frank Dancho and father-in-law Reinhold Jung.

Alfred was born in Selkirk, MB and was raised on the family farm. He fell in love with Trudi and the couple worked tirelessly to start their own farm in 1972, a mile away from the homestead. They married in 1974 and raised their three children with the values of a hard work ethic, integrity and kindness. Along with farming, he established a grain cleaning plant at the farm which he ran for many years.

His loves included Trudi's baking (cinnamon buns), Arctic Cat snowmobiles, boating, quadding and Allis Chalmers. But above all, his ultimate passion was his grandchildren which he showered with love.

A special thank you to the Beausejour RCMP for the kindness they showed Trudi, as well as the EMS who were in attendance.

A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, July 28 at 11:00 a.m. at Sobering Funeral Chapel, 1035 Park Avenue E., Beausejour.

In lieu of flowers, a donation may be made to Children's Hospital Foundation (Variety Heart Centre), FE241-685 William Avenue, Winnipeg, MB R3E 0Z2.

OBITUARY

Gordon Ole Busch
April 5, 1937- July 14, 2018

It is with deep sorrow we announce the passing of our beloved husband, father, Giga, and great Giga on July 14, 2018.

Gordon will be lovingly missed by Mary, his wife of 50 years. Left to treasure his memories are his daughters Sylvia (Bob) Bastable and families; Karen (Ron) Warcimaga and grandchildren Kendall (Chad) Krut, Kyle (Chelsey) Warcimaga; great-grandchildren Davis, Carys, and Dexter Krut, and Taylor and Emmeline Warcimaga; his sister Linda Fecek; and many nieces, nephews, close relatives and cherished friends.

Gordon was born in Camper, Manitoba. He had an incredible work ethic and ability for helping others. He was very proud of operating Gimli Feed Service for 32 years. In addition to serving his customers, he made many lifelong friends.

Gordon enjoyed a busy retirement, which included volunteer driving. He was affectionately known as "MapQuest" because he would drive you anywhere at any time.

Gordon enjoyed the company of his family and friends. He was very proud of his children and grandchildren and all of their achievements. His car was the first one in the parking lot at every event. The family thanks the EMS responders, the staff at St. Boniface ICU, and Dr. Zoppa and the staff at Selkirk Regional Health Centre, who provided heartfelt care and compassion throughout his stay.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Gordon's memory to the Interlake-Eastern Health Foundation for the SRHC by mail to the Selkirk Regional Health Centre, PO Box 5000, 120 Easton Drive, Selkirk, Mb. R1A 2M2 or online at www.iehf.ca or the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Manitoba, 1379 Kenaston Blvd, Winnipeg MB, R3P 0Y4.

A celebration of Gordon's life will be held on Friday, July 27th at 11:00 a.m. at the Gilbart Funeral Chapel, 309 Eveline Street, Selkirk, Manitoba.

OBITUARY

Allan Cartlidge
September 17, 1928 - July 19, 2018

Just after sunrise on a warm summer morning, Al died peacefully in his sleep. He will be greatly missed by the love of his life, wife Mary; as well as his daughters Thora (Terry, Mykhaylo, Petro), Nancy (Dennis, Jake, Liza, Pat), Conni (Brent, Ari, Mary, Joe) and foster daughter Marlene (Jim, Heather). He will also be dearly remembered by all of his great-grandchildren.

Al was predeceased by his step-brother, David Martin, with whom he grew up at Poplar Point, MB.

Life was always an adventure for Al as he moved from hospital administration career to letter carrier to elementary school teacher; from Portage La Prairie to Selkirk to Australia and back; from summer camping trips with his family to canoeing with grandkids to tennis matches with Mary. All of these adventures became stories well-told.

A celebration of Al's life and interment of ashes will take place on Thursday, September 20, 2018 at 2:00 p.m. at St Anne's Anglican Church, 3 km west of Poplar Point on Hwy. 26.

William (Bill) Penny

With sorrowful hearts we announce the peaceful passing of William (Bill) Penny on Thursday, July 19, 2018 at the Tudor House PCH, Selkirk at the age of 94 years.

He was predeceased by his wife Jean in 2006 and son Gord in 2014. He is survived by his children: Dennis (Peggy), Pat (Kas), Art, Gail (Dale) and Lorna (Dave); his youngest brother Walter; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Bill was born in Winnipeg, the eldest of five children. Bill's Dad worked for the City of Winnipeg, and when Bill was seven years old his Dad moved the family out to the Matlock area to begin their new life as farmers joining Bill's grandparents on the original homestead. When Bill was around the age of 14 his family moved to the Petersfield area to expand their own farming operations.

In addition to helping on the farm Bill did a variety of jobs; delivering ice, yard maintenance, operating his own gravel truck on the highways and for local gravel businesses, hauling snow for CN Rail, cutting fence posts and working in the bush camps in Ontario. This work enabled Bill to save and purchase his own farm.

In 1949 Bill married Jean Hurrie and they farmed as partners for 44 years, retiring in 1992. His ultimate favourite job on the farm was operating the combine and enjoying picnic lunches in the field during the harvest.

Honorary pallbearers are the amazing staff of the Tudor House Personal Care Home where Dad resided for the past 10 years. We are very thankful to the staff for their excellent care, friendship, love and attention given to Dad over the years.

A celebration of Bill's life will take place on Thursday, July 26, at 11:00 a.m., in the Gilbart Funeral Chapel, Selkirk, with Pastor Neill Stitt officiating.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the Dunara Cemetery Fund, Box 642, Petersfield, Manitoba R0C 2L0

Rest in peace Dad, your work on earth is done and heaven is a beautiful place!

Condolences, pictures and videos may be left on his tribute wall at www.gilbartfuneralhome.com

OBITUARY

Frank Siegfried Bisiak

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of our beloved husband, dad and grandpa on July 22, 2018.

Frank will be greatly missed by his loving wife of 50 years, Wendy. Left to treasure his memories are his three girls and their children Cathy (Gary), Dylan; Lisa (Craig), Ross, Ryan and Alex; Barb (Al), Sydney, Aaron and Addie. He is survived by his sisters, Hilda (Iwo), Maria, Ellie, Rose and his brother Alois; his mother-in-law Jean Gunter; sisters-in-law Donna (Herb), Bev and brother-in-law Wayne. He was predeceased by his parents Frank Sr. and Valerie and his brother Helmut; father-in-law Jerry Gunter and brother-in-law Dennis. He leaves to mourn numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Frank was born February 2, 1944 in a small town in Austria. He immigrated to Canada with his parents and five siblings in 1957.

Frank attended Red River Community College to become an electrician. This is where he met Wendy. They married in 1967 and in 1971 moved to Selkirk where they raised their family. Most of his career was spent working at the Manitoba Rolling Mills for 30 years.

Frank was very proud of and enjoyed spending time with his seven grandchildren. Frank was an animal lover, and forever missed his faithful companion, Rupert. Frank enjoyed camping, fishing and many vacations with family and friends.

Dad you will always be in our hearts and never forgotten.

Wendy and the girls want to thank family members and friends who visited with Frank during his brief stay in the hospital. Frank had a smile for everyone that walked in the door.

Donna, Kristy and Sandy, words cannot express how thankful we are for all the love and support you have given us.

A celebration of life will be held on Thursday, July 26 at 3:30 p.m. at the Gilbart Funeral Chapel in Selkirk.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the charity of your choice.

Condolences, pictures and videos may be left on Frank's tribute wall at www.gilbartfuneralhome.com
